REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board of Allentown:

My second annual report deals chiefly with changes in the staff of teachers, comparison of school expenditures, increasing the per cent of promotions, special activities, and necrology.

Changes in the Staff of Teachers

This year three changes have occurred in the staff of teachers. Late in the summer Mr. Kalloch withdrew as teacher of manual training. Mr. Ralph P. Kelley of Manchester, who was graduated in 1933 from the three-year junior high school course at Keene, was chosen to succeed Mr. Kalloch. Mr. Kelley had taught manual training for one year in the night schools in Manchester. He also completed in 1934 one-half year of post-graduate study at Keene in elementary school methods.

Upon the sudden death in December of the Principal, Mrs. Edith S. Wattles, Mr. Kelley was elected principal of the building and teacher of Grades VI-VIII inclusive. Mr. Edward W. Healy, Jr., of Manchester, a graduate in 1935 from New Hampshire University, taught Mr. Kelley's classes in manual training until recently, when he was appointed to teach similar classes in Manchester. Fortunately, Mr. Kalloch, former teacher of manual training, was able to return to the Allentown School and continue this valuable work with the older boys.

Comparison of School Expenditures

The small enrollment in the public schools of Allentown makes the average cost per elementary pupil ($117.78) particularly high in comparison with the state average of $76.93 per pupil.

On the other hand, when the school costs of Allensown are figured on its equalized valuation, amounting to $1,568,924, the cost per $1000 for all public school purposes is only $5.16. The median for the state is approximately $11. per $1000.

Statistics for the year ending June 30, 1935, show that, of 238 districts maintaining schools in the state, Allensown's cost per $1000. was 6th from the lowest.

This year the district's legal liability for high school tuition has increased from $73.81 to $75.19. The liability for tuition in Pembroke Academy is $58.85.

Increasing the Per Cent of Promotions

In common with instructors in other towns, your teachers and superintendent have been disturbed by the low percentage of promotions attained by some schools. To improve this situation four methods of procedure are being followed: (1) Trial promotions are being extended for at least half a year; (2) A complete record of achievement tests is kept and studied for every pupil in the four higher grades; (3) The majority of the teachers are making annually at least one visit to every home represented by the pupils in their room; (4) Before a pupil is returned to a lower grade, the case is reported to the superintendent and investigated by him.

Special Activities

I wish to commend to your attention the printed report, presented by your domestic science teacher for the year ending in June 1935.

Although the instruction has been interrupted by several changes in teachers, the work in manual training has served well two objectives: the interpretation of mental concepts, and training in hand skill. A particularly fine piece of workmanship is the sand-table built last year for use in the intermediate room. Projects this year have included goals for the basketball court and several folding beds for the Suncook Nursery School.

Special activities for the extension of educational opportunities to those above and below the common school age have been supported by your community. Chief among these is the Suncook Nursery School,, and the recently organized classes for the instruction of adults in English and sewing.

The Nursery School provides care and instruction for thirty underprivileged children between the ages of two and five years. The entire cost of instruction, nursing care, and food is paid by the federal government through the Works Progress Administration. The expense of housing, fuel and equipment has been generously met by individual contributors. Chief among these have been the representatives of the Suncook Mills.

Since the middle of January over sixty men and women are attending regular classes in English under the instruction of Mr. Lucien Brunelle of North Haverhill, New Hampshire.

Fifty or more women have recently formed five classes in sewing under the direction of Miss Isabelle Barnett of Whitefield, New Hampshire.

Both Mr. Brunelle and Miss Barnett are graduates of New Hampshire University. The cost of instruction in adult classes is also paid by the federal government through the Works Progress Administration.

Particularly encouraging is the very large percentage of corrective treatments made possible by special funds, administered in connection with the regular work of your School Nurse. I commend to your attention her printed report.

Physical training throughout the year for the boys and girls of grammar school age would add much to your health program by the development of alertness and stamina. I would suggest that a special appropriation be made by your school district sufficient to secure to the school children and residents of Allenstown free use of the Community House situated in Suncook.

Necrology

By the sudden death of Mrs. Edith Stearns Wattles on December 9, 1935, we sustained the loss of a superior teacher.

Mrs. Wattles received her professional training at Plymouth Normal School, graduating in the Class of 1893. Her service in the schools of New Hampshire extended over more than twenty-two years. For more than eighteen years she had taught in Allenstown, where she was principal of the Grammar School. Mrs. Wattles was also serving the community as clerk of the School district, and for years had been a loyal member of the New Hampshire State Teachers' Association.

Her personality and professional spirit were commanding; her courage and tactfulness won the admiration of other teachers and the devotion of her pupils.

Conclusion

In conclusion I wish to commend the efficient service rendered by your janitor in the general care of the building and in prompt attention to minor repairs.

I appreciate the regular instruction and the special work performed by your music supervisor in connection with extra-school functions; and the willingness with which all teachers have contributed time and effort, made necessary by the testing program, home visits and other special activities.

It has been a pleasure to share with the members of your Board the administrative activities of the past year.

Respectfully,

GEORGE H. HARMON,

Superintendent.

February 19, 1936.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE REPORT

For the Year Ending June 30, 1935

George H. Harmon, Superintendent of Schools

During the early Fall, the class projects in cooking were the canning vegetables, the making of jellies, marmalade, and pickles.

For home consumption the girls canned the following number:

- 56 jars of vegetables
- 33 jars of jelly (grape, apple, cranberry)
- 28 jars of marmalade
- 17 jars of pickles

For school consumption in hot lunches:

- 22 jars of vegetables
- 5 jars of marmalade

The vegetables for school use in canning were donated by the members of the school.

Other cooking projects consisted in preparing hot lunches which were served in the winter months to children bringing cold lunches. To help defray expenses for these lunches, several times the cooking class made popcorn balls to sell to the pupils of the school. Chowders, soups, casserole dishes, meat substitutes, and potatoes prepared in different ways were served with these lunches.

The spring projects consisted in the making of different salads and dressings.

In sewing the girls made dresses, remodeled dresses, made underwear, a hemstitched table cloth, a luncheon set, tablemats, cooking caps, and aprons, holders and fancy aprons for individual projects.

For class projects, a remodeled dress for one of the girls of the school, a sofa pillow and a quilt were made. Later the pillow and quilt were sold.

In May in collaboration with the manual training classes, the girls staged a play at the Town Hall in Pembroke in connection with the School Exhibition. The play was written by the pupils and was entitled, "Mother's Day Out." In this play their objective was to illustrate lessons learned in household management, cooking and sewing, and manual training.

One afternoon in June permission was given the teacher to take the class on a shopping trip to Concord. The purpose was to purchase dishes needed for both kitchen and the dining room. The trip proved to be a profitable one educationally, because the time was not only used for shopping but also for sight seeing.

The practice house for domestic arts was visited where a sewing class in progress was seen. From there we went into the Rundlett School and saw the school kitchen. That being an older type of a school kitchen, we decided to visit the modern one in the Senior High School. It was an inspiration to the girls to see how other girls worked in their class rooms.

Later in June a lunch was served by the Domestic Science girls to their mothers, school board, and superintendent.

To us, the pupils and teacher of Domestic Science, the year of 1934-1935 has been one of much interest and we wish to express our thanks and appreciation to parents, friends, school board, and Superintendent for the help and cooperation given to us.

EDNA P. BENWARE,
Teacher of Domestic Science.
